COLUMBIA THEATRE

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Thomas Meighan

With Beautiful Martha Mansfield

IN

"Civilian Clothes"

THOMAS MEIGHAN and MARTHA MANSFIELD in a new film. A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

Over there, in his captain's uniform, he had been her beau ideal of a man. Over here, in his butler's garb or his noisy "hand-me-downs"—well this snobbish little aristocrat hadn't planned for that!

But he was her husband, married in France. And fighting Sam McGinnis made her fit to be called his wife in America. Also MACK SENNETT'S—"GREAT SCOTT"

The Final Tribute

When the call to arms was given, Missouri responded. Thousands of her men and women dropped their studies, their professions and their work to answer the summons. Prussianism threatened the peace and prosperity of the world—Missouri assembled its forces and joined in the united action which crushed the menace and assured safety and civilization to the world.

Honor the Fifty-Two Who Gave Their Lives

It is just and fitting that we should honor the fifty-two men from the University of Missouri who gave their lives in the great World War. The memory of their deeds must be kept alive. In serving mankind, these men lost their lives—should not their action be commemorated in a way which will exemplify their deeds? Our Memorial should be of the same service to mankind as they were. A building which will serve daily the entire University, the students and alumni, can best stand as a Memorial to Missouri's heroes. Such a desirable structure is found in the

Missouri Memorial Union Building

ENDORSE Y. M. C. A.

The Young Men's Christian Association is the most important society connected with this University and it virtually takes rank with such all exclusive organizations as the Missouri Union and the Student Body. It brings men together on the basis of common moral convictions and the desire to be helpful to fellow students and others. It has done and is doing a grand work, and it deserves the support of every one in the University and the state of Missouri.

A. ROSS HILL,
President, University of Missouri.

The Y. M. C. A. not only has vision and purpose, but also a business-like and well ordered organization which effectively carries out its ideals. I am heartily in sympathy with the movement to provide the Y. M. C. A. with funds for its far reaching work.
